

Dustin Daniel Williams

April 17, 2005

Dustin Daniel Williams, 32, of Fort Collins, died Sunday, April 17, 2005, in an auto accident. Dustin was born April 16, 1973, in Fort Collins to Daniel B. "Dan" Williams and Patricia A. Easthouse Williams. He lived all his life in Fort Collins and graduated from Poudre High School in 1992. He was of Catholic faith. Dustin was a drywaller for Paul Carter Construction. He loved rodeo and baseball, was a soccer coach and enjoyed softball, golf, bikes, hunting, four-wheelers and children. His favorite pastime was playing Texas Hold'em. He lived life fast and furious. Mr. Williams is survived by his parents, of Fort Collins; grandmother, Marty Williams, of Fort Collins; the love of his life, Dawn Kuhlman, of Fort Collins; two daughters, Haileigh Sioux Williams and Presley Michelle Williams, both of Fort Collins; three special brothers, Roy Aldon Cole, of Windsor, Tim Caryl, of Wellington, and Cody Schlatter, of Ault; his ex-wife, Jessica Davenport, of Fort Collins; several aunts and uncles; Joann Cole, true-blue friend; and many other wonderful other friends. Dustin was preceded in death by his grandparents, Douglas Daniel Williams and Mac and Pearl Easthouse. A rosary will be at 7 p.m. Thursday. A funeral service will be at 10 a.m. Friday. Both services will be at Bohlender Funeral Chapel with Deacon Warren Lybarger officiating. Those who desire may view Dustin from 1 to 5 p.m. today and from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. Thursday at Bohlender Funeral Chapel. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Haileigh Sioux Williams Coverdell Education Fund in care of Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 W. Olive St., Fort Collins, CO 80524.