He was a U.S. Army Veteran and he honed his trade as a baker; a skill, and vocation that served him well in his life. He is remembered as always being there for his three adult children. Visiting with them was his favorite and most cherished pastime.

He is survived by children, Amy Smith, Jordan Smith and Nicolus Smith; brother, John Smith (Brianna); sisters, Sandy (Smith), Judy (Crouse) and Tracy (Ragland) and brothers-in-law, Morris Ragland and Rich Conaway.

Earl was preceded in death by his parents, Earl and Ellen; and his sister, Barbara Kay (Conaway).
