

Edith Caroline Moore

May 24, 1925 - July 15, 2016

Edith Caroline Moore, age 91, died early Friday morning, July 15, 2016 at her home of more than 51 years in Fort Collins, Colorado.

Born May 24, 1925 in New Virginia, Iowa to Charles and Laura Hylton, "Edie" as she was known to her friends, had a sister, Gweneth, who preceded her in death.

After graduation from high school in 1942, Edith left the family farm to start her own career in Des Moines, Iowa. She attended business school and learned the skills she needed to join the secretarial pool for the Iowa State Legislature. During World War II, Edith, like so many during that period, would leave work and go work an additional "victory shift" at a local business supporting the war effort.

In 1949, while working at the Iowa State Capitol, a brash young man by the name of Robert Eugene Moore joined the audio staff for the State Capitol building. He relentlessly kept asking Edith to go on a date with him. She finally relented, a romance blossomed and on April 14, 1950, they eloped. Married nearly 62 years and with one son, Robert Eugene Moore, Jr., they moved to Fort Collins in 1962 where Edith worked for the U.S. Department of Agriculture for more than 30 years, retiring as Real Estate Specialist for the Regional Director.

During her life, Edith was a faithful member of the First Presbyterian Church. She also championed the cause of working women through her involvement and leadership in such organizations as the National Active and Retired Federal Employee Association, Zonta, the Working Women's Conference and many others. Edith was also an active member and "Lady Elk" for Lodge 804 of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

Edith was preceded in death by her husband and is survived by her son, Robert E. Moore, Jr.; daughter-in-law, Joyce Osborn; granddaughter, Sara Hass and her husband, Paul Hass, Jr.; great granddaughter, Lela Hass, all of Ceresco, Nebraska; along with several nieces, nephews, and other family in Iowa and her many dear friends.

There will be a Memorial Service at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, August 6. at First Presbyterian Church, 531 South College Ave. followed by a luncheon reception at the church and Graveside Service at 1:30 p.m.. at Grandview Cemetery.

The family asks that memorial contributions be made to the First Presbyterian Church Foundation or the Fort Collins Senior Center in care of Bohlender funeral Chapel, 121 W. Olive, Fort Collins, Colorado 80524.

Cemetery Details

Grandview Cemetery

1900 W. Mountain Ave.
Ft. Collins, CO 80521

Previous Events

Memorial Service

AUG 6. 11:00 AM (MT)

First Presbyterian Church
531 S. College Ave. Fort Collins, CO US 80524
Fort Collins, CO 80524

Graveside Service

AUG 6. 1:30 PM (MT)

Grandview Cemetery
1900 W. Mountain Ave. Fort Collins, CO 80521
Fort Collins, CO 80521

Tribute Wall

EL

“ Bob and Family-

I am so sorry for the loss of your Mom. I know it is impossible to fill the void you have in your heart but please know your family and friends are here for you during this difficult time. Please keep those wonderful memories alive and continue to share them with your beautiful granddaughter.

Erich Langer

Erich Langer - August 01, 2016 at 03:39 PM

JF

“ Edith was like a second Mom to Russ and I. We've known her since 1973. During that period of time, we have shared many holiday meals together either at our place or at her best friend Frannie's place. We have enjoyed shopping, luncheons, parties, and a whole lot of laughs together. She will forever be in our hearts and minds, and we feel very fortunate to have known and shared the life of this wonderful woman. She will be terribly missed by us. Jackie and Russ Flowers

Jackie and Russ Flowers - July 30, 2016 at 12:14 PM

SA

“ Bob,

Death is never timely for those of us left behind. May the peace and contentment of God's love be with you and your family.

*Respectfully,
Stephanie Abdullah
OTSG*

stephanie abdullah - July 21, 2016 at 08:46 AM

MT

“ No matter how old one may be, it's tough to lose your Mom. The world is forever different afterwards. Bob, please know I am with you in sorrow. - - Maria L. Tolleson

Maria L. Tolleson - July 21, 2016 at 07:53 AM

BL

“ Bob,

*Condolences on the passing of your Mother.
Prayers for you during your time of sadness
and grief.*

Barbara Von Lienen

Barbara Von Lienen - July 21, 2016 at 07:41 AM

KR

“ Bob and Family,

Please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of your loved one. May God give your comfort in your time of grief and healing; and may her memories cherish your heart forever.

Sincerely,

Ketly Ray

WTC

Ketly Ray - July 21, 2016 at 07:28 AM

DO

“ Bob Moore & Family

•I am deeply sorry to hear about the death of your mother. May GOD continue to strengthen you and the rest of the family as you all hold onto the fine memories.

Don Owens

WCT

Donald Owens - July 20, 2016 at 03:39 PM

“ My grandma Edith was one of the sweetest most respected women I have ever had the privilege of knowing. She taught me so much. I will never forget all of the crafts she did with me as a kid. She could also shop circles around me, loved our shopping sprees. She was always dressed to the nines, nails and hair done perfectly, and always had matching jewelry, shoes, lipstick, and purses for every outfit. I know she is happy to be back by my grandpa's side. Love you, miss you, see you again someday grandma!

Sara Hass - July 20, 2016 at 02:02 PM

SH

“ My grandma Edith was one of the sweetest most respected women I have ever had the privilege of knowing. She taught me so much. I will never forget all of the crafts she did with me as a kid. She could also shop circles around me, loved our shopping sprees. She was always dressed to the nines, nails and hair done perfectly, and always had matching jewelry, shoes, lipstick, and purses for every outfit. I know she is happy to be back by my grandpa's side. Love you, miss you, see you again someday grandma!

Sara Hass - July 20, 2016 at 02:01 PM

SH

“ My grandma Edith was one of the sweetest most respected women I have ever had the privilege of knowing. She taught me so much. I will never forget all of the crafts she did with me as a kid. She could also shop circles around me, loved our shopping sprees. She was always dressed to the nines, nails and hair done perfectly, and always had matching jewelry, shoes, lipstick, and purses for every outfit. I know she is happy to be back by my grandpa's side. Love you, miss you, see you again someday grandma!

Sara Hass - July 20, 2016 at 02:00 PM