“ I fondly remember the years when Eleanor was the manager of the Ramskeller. When we would make food deliveries to the Ramskellar weekly or as needed. She was always pleasant and could brighten up a bad or busy day. She never let us leave without first asking if we want a fresh made limeade. She had the knack for making the best you can find anywhere. She was very sweet, kind and friendly. My condolences to the family. May Eleanor rest in peace.

“ My childhood is full of precious memories of Auntie Eleanor. I will miss reminiscing with her about days gone by. We would recall trips to the laundromat and Baby Ruth candy bars, her huge purse, throw rug skating on rugs without backing. Countless hours parked downtown with her and my mom doing, as she always said, "Watching the people go by." The blackberries and crabapples. The list goes on and on and would not be complete without zinnias and sunflowers. I will plant some next spring in honor of my dear aunt and godmother who was such a large part of my life. Aunt Eleanor never failed to mention how fortunate she was to be blessed with wonderful, caring people that took care of her every need. May she rest in peace and joy.
