

Eleanora M. Jordan

March 5, 1927 - March 25, 2021

Eleanora Jordan, born March 5, 1927, in Fort Collins, CO, passed away on March 25, 2021.

Eleanora lived in Fort Collins her whole life. She grew up on a farm and was a true “farm girl” at heart. Everyone knew to get out of the way when she was driving the farm truck, otherwise she would run you right over!

On May 5, 1949, Eleanora married the love of her life, Edward Jordan, and when they weren’t busy Polka dancing every weekend, they were very busy raising their three sons, Donn, Ron, and Gary.

Eleanora took care of everyone around her. You could always find her cooking and crocheting, her favorite thing to crochet being afghans for her sons and her grandkids. Eleanora was also quite the businesswoman. She had her own ceramics store where she would teach ceramics as well. Eleanora was always up for a good joke, and usually had to put up with lots of teasing

from her sons and grandkids, but she would not have had it any other way.

Eleanora is preceded in death by her beloved husband; parents; and two brothers.

She is survived by her three sons; Donn (Fort Collins, CO), Ron (Severance, CO), and Gary (Fort Collins, CO); 7 grandkids; 14 great-grandkids; and 11 great-great grandkids.

In lieu of flowers, tributes in Eleanora's honor can be made out to Pathways Hospice of Fort Collins, CO.

And as Eleanora would always say... Hug your family, wave at your neighbors, and be kind!
