

Elizabeth Ann Enright

September 15, 1930 - October 12, 2022

That's all folks!

I, Elizabeth Enright, was born Elizabeth Richardson on September 15, 1930, in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and grew up in Dubuque, Iowa. I'm writing my own obituary so I can personally thank those past and present who have helped and befriended me through the wonderful journey of my life: with all of its ups and downs. Many more ups than downs.

I was blessed with a fantastic education which took me from elementary school through college. I enjoyed both the big things in life (my four children) and the small things (golf, bridge, theater). I will be remembered at a daily mass celebrating my life here on earth. A private graveside service will be performed in Dubuque.

I have passed into my next life where I will join my husband and father of our children as well as the rest of my missed but not forgotten family.

My deepest sorrow is leaving behind my children, - Patti Griffin, Laurie Torgerson (Steve), Mike Enright, and Jim Enright (Jennifer) along with my six grandchildren: Shannon Costa, Scott Griffin, Landon Torgerson, Sheridan Torgerson, Max Enright, and Paige Enright and two great grandchildren Afonso and Xavier Costa. I will also sorely miss my cousins, Patricia and Mary.

My journey has now ended. I'll be seeing you in all the old familiar places.

***In lieu of flowers, please send a donation to Saint Jude Children's Research Hospital or to a charity of your choice in Liz's name.

A Prayer Remembrance in the memory of Liz will be made at each Mass from October 19, 2022 through November 3, 2022 at Saint Josephs Catholic Church, 300 W. Mountain Avenue, Fort Collins, Colorado 80521.

A private burial interment will be held at Linwood Cemetery, 2736 Windsor Avenue, Dubuque, Iowa 52001 on a date yet to be determined.

“ To all of my Liz's children who are my cousins, I am sending my deepest condolences for the loss of your Mom. I remember her well. May you find peace and comfort in your special memories. And as you grieve her loss, may God hold all of you and Aunt Liz in the palm of His hand.

“ Liz, I will miss you greatly. You were a wonderful friend: loyal, extremely kind, intelligent, interesting, and very humorous. I learned from you that a small person can hold an amazing amount of strength. I'm glad you are with your mother now whom you dearly missed, although I am sad that we will be without you. I love you still.

“ Dear Liz Enright family,

We have shared much through the years and now again we share sorrow. One is never ready when grief comes but please know that you are supported and carried in others hearts.

“ To My Old and Loyal Friend--Liz--

Liz has come into my life off and on through at least 50 years--we have been neighbors, bridge club members, and just pals throughout all of those decades.

Liz was a very intense person--she felt strongly about her views and endeavors. Sometimes, we disagreed and sometimes we were on the same page. But in all the long years, we were really always good friends.

Liz was incredibly smart- I told her all through the years that her bridge was really excellent and way beyond my capabilities--she used to argue with me that if I just tried harder and really cared, I could be as good as she was. It was a constant theme in our long relationship. Looking back, it was kinda one of those fond memories.

So, I will miss her many phone calls and her signing off with "BYE, BYE<, SWEETIE" . She had a wonderful family, and left many accomplishments.

And I will say "bye for now" and God Bless. June Kissock
