

Eulilae Mae Nichol

July 15, 1921 - August 23, 2011

Eulilae Mae Board Nichol, 90, of Fort Collins died August 20, 2011. She was born July 15, 1921, in Chugwater, Wyoming, a daughter of the late Delbert and Dora Bostwick Board. She moved to Fort Collins at the age of 6 months. She attended Fort Collins High School. In August 1942 she married George A. Nichol who preceded her in death in November 1992. Together they dairy farmed and farmed in the Waverly area until their retirement. She enjoyed working with stained glass, playing cards, traveling, fishing, her extension club, and gardening. She is survived by a son, Jerry Bob of Cheyenne; a daughter, Judy McLaughlin of Fort Collins; a granddaughter, Samona Bill McDonald of Whittier, California; and a grandson, James Richard Hensley of Fort Collins. She is also survived by two great granddaughters, Sirena Foidi stationed in Seoul Korea with the Army and Alexis Hensley of Fort Collins. She was preceded in death by her parents, two brothers, Cecil and Robert Board and a sister, Virginia Drake. Cremation has taken place under the direction of Bohlender Funeral Chapel. At her request, there will be no services.

Tribute Wall

MH

“ Dear family: So sorry for the loss of your mother. I enjoyed getting to know her when I was head housekeeper at Parwood. I enjoyed and loved her dearly. She laughed and joked with the housekeepers daily. I will never forget her big stick or how she loved her candy. God Bless You All and I am blessed for knowing her.

michele hanna - August 30, 2011 at 12:00 AM