Evie was born in Long Beach, California on August 23, 1926 to her parents, Lester and Anne Mauck. She was raised in Long Beach, California and attended, junior college where she studied accounting. Evie was married to Daniel Barnes and stayed at home to raise their three daughters while residing in California, Ohio, and New Jersey. In addition, she volunteered her time at Poudre Valley Hospital and Our Savior Lutheran Church. For 20 plus years Evie modeled personal perseverance and advocacy for herself and other low vision community members. For the last 5 1/2 years Evie embraced living at the Winslow Senior "Resort", in Fort Collins where special friendships and comfort prevailed during her final years of life. Her family and loved ones can hardly say enough of her independence, tenacity, courage, love, and infectious smile. She was preceded in death by her parents; brother Harold Mauck and sister Lou Ann Carter. Evie is survived by her three daughters:

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I am the daughter of Bill and Q Rollosson, also residents of the Winslow. My mom, Q, was one of the bridge partners along with Jean and Joyce. When Mom was in the Rehab across the parking lot, the 3 would come to play bridge with her. She truly looked forward to them. I still have a card the three of them gave her that she thought was special. They were true friends and I was thankful for them as well. Both of my parents have passed but are in my thoughts every day.

“ Grandma Evie you are missed! I remember your kind and gentle ways and your deep wisdom that danced in your eyes when you shared a life memory with me. Aaron also treasured you. Thank you for your kindness and opening up your home to both Aaron and I. We love and miss you. Blessing and love to Ray and Cathie as they begin the healing process of losing you. I admire your relationship with your loving daughter Cathie. It was an example for all Mothers and Daughters to follow. Thank you for sharing that connection with the world. The love was plain to see. I know her heart is breaking over the deep loss. Please continue to shine on them from Heaven. Much love to you and your family now and forever. Love, Dasha Jacobs and Aaron Hubert
