

Evelyn Chavira Pacheco

April 1, 2000 - March 20, 2014

Evelyn Chavira Pacheco passed away on March 20, 2014 after a most courageous battle with brain cancer, living well beyond the doctors' initial expectations. Evelyn was born on April 1, 2000 in Fort Collins, Colorado to Juan and Cande. She was a loving big-sister to her brother Said and sister Mia. She will be deeply missed by her grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, teachers and friends. Evelyn was an 8th grader at Webber Middle School where, through it all, she maintained a sweet spirit, kind heart, beautiful smile, positive attitude and a life of gratitude. Evelyn loved music, shopping, dancing, painting nails, and drawing. She loved the colors dark pink, purple and turquoise. She was passionate about fighting cancer and until the end remained full of hope. She left us gently and we can continue her gentleness, keeping her memory with us by sharing our kindnesses with each other. Her family is grateful to those who were supportive of her, assisting her in class, writing notes, donating funds, and the many thoughts and prayers on her behalf.

We are less without her, yet so much more because we had her. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held Tuesday, 10 a.m. at Holy Family Catholic Church. Interment will follow at Roselawn Cemetery. Evelyn Chavira Pacheco falleció el 20 de marzo del 2014 después de una valiente batalla contra el cáncer cerebral, viviendo más allá de las expectativas iniciales de los médicos. Evelyn nació el 1 de abril del 2000 en Fort Collins, Colorado, siendo hija de Juan y Cande. Ella era una amorosa hermana mayor de Said y de su hermanita Mía. Ella será profundamente extrañada por sus padres, abuelos, tías, tíos, primos, maestros y amigos.

Evelyn cursaba el octavo grado en la Escuela Secundaria Webber, donde, a pesar de todo, ella mantenía un lindo espíritu, corazón amable, hermosa sonrisa, actitud positiva y una vida llena de gratitud. A Evelyn le encantaba la música, ir de compras, bailar, pintarse las uñas, y dibujar. Le encantaba el color rosa oscuro, el morado y el turquesa. Era una apasionada en la lucha contra el cáncer y hasta el final se mantuvo llena de esperanza.

Ella nos dejó su dulzura, su ejemplo y podemos seguir manteniendo su memoria con nosotros al compartir dichas bondades entre nosotros.

Su familia está muy agradecida con todas las personas que la apoyaron, ya sea ayudándole en clases, escribiendo notas, con la donación de fondos, y los muchos pensamientos y oraciones en su nombre.

Somos menos sin ella, sin embargo, mucho más porque la tuvimos a ella.

Una misa de cristiana sepultura se celebrará el martes, 10 am en la iglesia católica de la Sagrada Familia. Seguirá el sepelio en el cementerio de Roselawn .

“ it hurts to know shes no longer with us she made everyone smile. I remember seeing her only smile while she was having chemo treatment. She believed in a better today she wouldn't want us to cry. Only to live for tomorrow. I will always think of who she was. Its been 11 months since her death and im so happy i made it this long through it.

“ I was a classmate of Evelyn's at Webber. I grew to know her as a close friend. I always admired how optimistic, sweet, and spirited she was. She was always grateful and friendly to everyone. I will miss her so much and I am glad I had such a beautiful and kind friend. May she rest in peace and watch down on her family and friends from heaven. My prayers go out to her family during this difficult time.

“ Evelyn, It didn't take much time for you to touch a heart. Sincere eyes, wonderful smile and incredible attitude; challenging medical sciences statistics and Doctors prognosis. You leaved a legacy of love and courage on those souls crossing your life. "I came from -I am strong and never give up-" Juan and Cande, you gave Evelyn the most precious gift a parent has for a child " A life of happiness, love and courage" You and your family are in my thoughts.

“ Evelyn was truly one of the kindest, sweetest souls I ever knew. She never failed to share a smile, even on a day when she was not feeling well. Her smile made you want to be a better person, to live a life of gratitude, and to care about the things that really matter. Eveyln did that every day. Deepest condolences to all who loved her and most especially to the family she loved so much.

“ Advice from Evelyn Smile -You know... the kind of smile that says it will all be okay. Say you're "Pretty good..." even when you're not. Giggle Hug tight As she always said, some days you've got to "Just keep swimming." Live a life of gratitude. Never forget to say "Thank you" even for the smallest acts of kindness. Whisper I love you, like you are speaking to their heart. Have no fear...only HOPE Thank you for all the beautiful life lessons. I miss you my sweet girl. All my love and prayers to Cande, Juan, Said and Mia.
