

Floyd Ray Danczak

December 2, 1950 - August 24, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce on Sunday, August 24, 2025, Floyd Ray Danczak, loving husband, father, and Pops passed away in his home surrounded by loved ones.

Floyd was born on December 2, 1950, in North Platte, Nebraska to parents, Florian and Geraldine Danczak. He is survived by his wife, Charlene Danczak; his children, Jeramie (Dusti) Danczak, Lisa (Chris) Burnheide, & Michael Danczak; his step-children, Eric (Eddy) Fisher, Tonya (Jack) Hilyard, & Todd (Angie) Fisher; his grandchildren, Hadlee, Chancy, Hayden, Zariah, Cameron, Step-grandchildren Hudson, Milo, Asher, Jarrett, Sam, Trey, Skylar, & Morgan; his great step-grandchildren, Madison, Booker, & Emerson; his sister Della Troesper and several close cousins.

Floyd is preceded in death by parents Florian and Geraldine Danczak; daughter, Lynn Danczak; siblings Karen Danczak, Freddy Danczak; and beloved Grandmother Inez Johnson.

Floyd lived everyday to the fullest and brought joy to all he met. He grew up in the small town of North Platte which brought many wild adventures with his family, friends, and the love of his life, Charlene. You could always find Floyd in the company of the Fisher family, mainly that of Tommy and Jerry Fisher.

Floyd and Charlene began their adventurous life together in Colorado in April of 1985. In December 1987, they welcomed their son Jeramie into a large and loving blended family. Floyd enjoyed camping outdoors, fishing in Texas, and spending time with family.

Floyd had a career as an owner operator of a commercial over the road trucking company. Floyd was very proud of his semi, and loved pretty trucks. His trucks were always shining and bright with lights. After his trucking business, he went into general construction management. A position that suited him well and became his passion. The world of construction took Floyd to many out of state locations, building highways and developments. Floyd also managed many development sites, and built golf courses in the Northern Front Range of Colorado.

In 1993 Floyd received the special recognition for job of the year from the State of Colorado for the construction of Highway 7 in Estes Park. It was an honor for Floyd that he completed the project he was building the year Pope John Paul II visited Malo Retreat Center. Throughout his career, Floyd was a man who taught many and guided the perpetual success of multiple construction companies along the Front Range of Colorado.

His wife and family thank him for the wild ride!

“ My name is Margie Coufal and I worked at Johnstown Clothing & Embroidery for many years. I always enjoyed when Floyd would come into the store to visit or order caps or other promotional items for his business. He was always so much fun and a pleasure to deal with. Charlene, I'm sorry I wasn't able to visit with you at today's service, but I want you to know that Bill & I are praying for you and your family.

“ My name is Bob Quinn. I worked with Floyd 35 to 40 years ago at Loveland excavating. Floyd was one of the best construction guys I've ever known. I was an estimator project manager and he was a field supervisor superintendent when we went to look at jobs to bid or Wx that we already had been awarded and had to construct. He always said to me you have to build that job in your mind one step at a time, peace by peace before you ever begin, which was very great advice that I have always remembered and used while working for other companies and in 30 years of my own construction company. A great guy he will be missed.

“ Floyd was such a great man. He always made everyone laugh at the shop and was so patient in teaching me how to get him what he needed to make sure the jobs were done right. He will be missed.

“ Aunt Charlene and Family,

I have been praying for all of you. When I think of Uncle Floyd, I think about his kindness, smile and sarcasm. All of my memories are good. He was one of three people that consistently called me “Steven” instead of “Steve.” The other two are my wife and mom. I love you.

You are always in my prayers,

Love,

Steven Johnson

“Floyd Ray was the 2nd oldest of 12 cousins on my Mom's side. My Mom would always say he looked like Elvis. Handsome, Dark hair combed back, huge smile and a great laugh. Our family moved from North Platte when I was around 9 or 10. I have great memories of Floyd Ray always being with us. My Dad worked nights as a fireman so Floyd Ray would stay with us as the "Man of the House." I remember him pushing us on homemade cocarts, fishing with our Grandma Inez Johnson on the wall, or putting ketchup on his fried chicken at a local drive-in carhop. Almost every summer that I can remember he would sein minnows with my Dad, brother Dennis and I. He and my Dad would handle the net while my brother and I would tow the catch. After a days work we would sell them to a local bait shop who also had a large strawberry patch that we would sneak off to. Floyd Ray was in and around our family like a big brother in those early days. Not just for us, but other cousins as well. Some 50+ years later we would see each other again at a family reunion. Laughing and talking as if we had never been separated by time. Fortunately my two son's had the opportunity to meet him. He wrapped his arms around them as if they were family, and they felt it. That's just the way he was. I never knew of his extended family. I did have the opportunity to meet Charlene and Jarime, his Father's twin when Floyd Ray was younger. I am sorry for your loss.
