It says we had a web broadcast but it's a black screen and the church is not my dads. Was there a glitch?

I posted earlier but do not see my post. I am from out of town and, therefore, was unable to attend the service of Floyd Taladay. I was looking forward to viewing the webcast but I, too, only get a black screen. Please advise if I am doing something wrong. Lori Belgio

“ *I have good memories of “Doc,” as he was known at the naval facility in Bermuda, where I was stationed in the early 70’s. He was a First Class petty officer at the time and always brought a positive attitude to the comm shack. Was so pleased to learn he met his wife-to-be in Bermuda. My condolences to Floyd’s family. “ Dear Shirley and family,
I am so sorry at Floyd's passing and disappointed that I can't seem to get the posting of the service. Please know that my heart goes out to you and that I have many amusing memories of Saturday mornings at the bread ministry and many others throughout our church lives together.
Love,

“ Floyd and Shirley have always had a heart for Elderhaus. I remember working side by side with Floyd and Don Lambert doing landscaping, tree trimming, and whatever needed to be done, both at the old site at 605 S. Shields and our new location. Floyd and Shirley were faithfully present at "Eat Out for Elderhaus" fundraisers and many other events for Elderhaus. Shirley was the first nurse for the program back in the 1980's when it was just getting started. Your imprint on this program is substantial and permanent. The Elderhaus board and staff wishes to express our gratitude for the many years of service and support, and our condolences to Shirley and family. Take care, and God bless!

“ After we graduated high school we were looking for employment which we found at the local alfalfa plant. We had the night shift, we discovered that was not a career to pursue. After that shift we decided to join the military. He chose the Navy and I chose the Air Force. It was the best decision we both made.. At the last class reunion we were able to catch up on our military careers. I always remember Floyd as a good old boy and always had a smile on his face. May you RIP Floyd.
Condolences to Shirley and family.

“ I am sorry for your loss. God bless you and God's Spirit of consolation and peace be with you during this time. I knew Floyd form Saint Joseph Catholic Church. He was always so upbeat and joyous. We would sit around the table in the parish center and talk. Our conversations were on various topics. He was so proud of his grandchildren and of his children and wife. I can remember for so many years of his attending the Mass honoring veterans. He was proud of his service and well deserved. Thank you for his service. It is because of his sacrifice and the many others that we have the freedoms we have today. God bless you.
