“ May God Bless you and your family Craig. I will hold on to the bond of friendship that we shared during the short time that our life-paths crossed. I grieve, along with others at the loss of a friend, a father, a husband, a brother, a son, but I trust that you are now sitting in the arms of Jesus and that His grace will be evident and comfort those temporarily left behind. Until we meet again, my friend, may God's face shine upon up. Chris Larson Peachtree City, GA clarsonptc@comcast.net

“ I am happy to have known Craig and Andrew for a short time in Peachtree City, GA and am saddened by the news. Anyone who knew Craig was well aware of his love for his children and family. Please know that prayers will continue for your family to be comforted at this time of loss. God's Peace, Audrey Knight

“ From Frank to Craig and Jake to Kent, not only did our first names change over the last 33 years we did as well . Our friendship grew into one that I am truly blessed to have had and experienced. The memories are many and the experiences will never be forgotten. You were a terrific college roommate, professional mentor and someone I could always count on to give me their opinion. Even though Denver Beat Green Bay in the Super Bowl, we remained friends. Goodbye and May God Bless you Francis.
