“ Tom and Jim, I am so sorry to learn of your mother's death last Friday. We didn't know your mother was in bad health. It seemed like I had talked to her a month or so ago. The Gray family across the street enjoyed their interactions with your mother over many years. I well remember your father, Wilmer, and when you both were kids on the block. Please accept our family's condolences. I hope all of you can accept and adjust to your mother's passing. She was a very admirable lady. With warmest regards, Bill Gray and family Sarah, Jannie and Bobby

We know that the Lord will receive her with open arms, for her exemplary life full of love for others and faith in God, which is evident in the beautiful family she has made. We wish the best for Tom and Emma, Jim and Wendy, and Danielle in this difficult time; may be they be left with the peace and the satisfaction of having been sons, daughters, and loving granddaughter, filling Freda's life with moments of love, happiness, and satisfaction.
