“ Gary, you have been a part of my life for almost 25 years, and Matt even longer. You were a brother an uncle and a friend to our family. You will always be loved and a part of us. I literally can not walk into a room in my house without seeing a part of you.....wish your life wasn't such a struggle. I truly miss your big heart. Praying for your peace in the afterlife ”

Gary may all your struggles be over and you have the Peace that we all want and need! Life is so short and I know that you did everything to the extreme and lived life to the fullest and have so many experiences that most people can only dream about, but you do it and lived them! May god bless your family and give them the strength!
