Her parents were both descendants of Germans living in Russia, and her dad was a sugar beet farmer. She was a homemaker while her children were young, and was also an executive secretary for various technical companies including Sandia Corporation in Albuquerque and CBW Automation in Fort Collins. She served as the office manager/interior decorator for Jungmeyer Homes. As a long-time member of Trinity Lutheran Church, she was involved in various church activities throughout her life. Gerry was an avid sports lover of the Rockies, Broncos, Nuggets and CSU Rams. Gardening and interior decorating were her other interests and she loved hosting family and friends.

Her family was the most important thing in her life and she was so very proud of each of them.

Survivors include her children, Janet & husband C.J. Shibly, Karla & husband Greg Vesey, Tom & wife Linda Jungmeyer; a sister, Betty Wicklund; one brother, Harvey Weber; grandchildren: Sandra Shibly, Sherry Shibly, A.J.
