“ Gloria was a wonderful person and a great neighbor. We've been neighbors with her and her family for almost 50 years, couldn't ask for a better person to know! She was always busy entertaining her beautiful family. You could tell everyone was having a good time. Christmas was special to both Gloria and her husband Art. Gloria always sent posole along with warm tortillas to us to enjoy at Christmastime! We'll miss her as we miss her husband Art. May God bless all her family,
With love and prayers,

Such a sweet, kind person who very obviously loved her family. What a blessing to pass into eternity like that! Yes, she seemed always ready with a sweet smile. Most definitely made the best green chili at the family reunions (and probably in all of Colorado) in my husband and my opinions! May the merciful Lord Jesus comfort you in your grieving like only He can, and may you cherish your special memories of her. Love & prayers~ Loretta Johnson (Saavedra)
