

Gregory William Bullard

January 6, 1969 - July 31, 2015

Gregory William Bullard, 46, of Fort Collins, died July 31st from injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident. Greg was born January 6, 1969, to William and Donna Bullard. He is a graduate of Fort Collins High school and after receiving his secondary education he returned to the Fort Collins area. Greg owned and operated a successful landscape and irrigation business for many years. Most recently he was employed at Colorado State University as an Irrigation Foreman.

Greg had boundless energy and a driven spirit. He approached his pursuits with passion and commitment. Epitomizing the motto “work hard but, play harder”. He was an avid golfer, hockey player, fly fisherman, hunter and motorcycle rider. He loved spending time with his family, animals, and working on home improvement projects. His mechanical abilities were second to none. If it was broken... he could fix it.

Greg had an infectious smile, he shook with laughter and had great wit. He loved telling jokes and he was his own biggest fan. His dry sense of humor and sarcasm often made you speechless. Jackson Browne did not have a bigger fan than Greg. He loved 80's movies and could quote many of them line for line; however, he never knew where he put his car keys.

After marrying Beth, Greg became a Catholic. Often stating- “church is not for the good so, I better make sure I get there.” He prided himself on attending 7:30am mass proclaiming to be “a two donut Catholic.”

Greg is survived by his wife, Beth and their children, Jackson and Kate (affectionately known as Frog); his father, Bill and his siblings, Doug, Becky, Steve and Tim. He is preceded in death by his mother, Donna.

Mass of Christian Burial, Friday, 2:00pm, St. Joseph Catholic Church, 300 West Mountain. A celebration of Greg’s life will be held at the Bullard Farm at 5:00 pm. Memorial Contributions may be made to the Gregory Bullard Children’s Educational Fund in care of Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 W. Olive, Fort Collins, Colorado 80524.

“ My sincerest condolences go out to the Bullard family. I was at Sturgis for this years rally and rode many of the same roads as Greg did. We share a common bond in the love of motorcycles and the rallies that bring us all together as another type of family. I never had the pleasure of meeting Greg, but please know his loss is felt by many in the biker world as we have lost one of ours.

“ We are shocked and so sorry to hear about Greg. We will always remember him as such a happy, free hearted man. Being the first one at the ice cream machine on the cruise, having a great time with you guys in Jamaica (touring with Mike the taxi driver), and having a blast in Costa Rica. He seemed like such a great husband and father. Just remember, he is still watching over your family and will continue to be with you forever.

Our prayers to you and your family
