

Harold Stroh

May 3, 2007

Harold Stroh was born in Lincoln, Neb., to Henry Z. Stroh and Barbara Hersch Stroh. At one year of age his family moved to Loveland, then in 1922 they moved to the Fort Collins area. He was a farmer and cattle feeder.

ADVERTISEMENT He married Pearl Louise Hunter on July 3, 1937. She died June 17, 2005. They farmed together on the family farm where the Collindale Golf Course is now. In 1948, they purchased a farm three miles south of Wellington, where they lived for 11 years. In fall 1959 they moved and eventually purchased a farm two miles north of Anheuser Busch Brewery, where they lived until their retirement in 1977. The farm was sold to Colorado State University. They have lived in Fort Collins since their retirement and have enjoyed playing golf; they were members of the Fort Collins Country Club and Fox Acres Country Club at Red Feather Lakes. They also enjoyed traveling to Spain, Hawaii, Germany, Canada, Panama, Alaska and throughout the continental United States. Harold was an avid golfer, an enthusiastic fly fisherman and enjoyed playing cards with his friends at the Elks Club. He was a 4-H leader for many years, a member of Colorado Cattlemen's Association, Colorado Farm Bureau serving as president in 1954, a Mason and 32nd-degree Shriner. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church for 50 years and the Rams Horn Club for 25 years, where he was a strong supporter of CSU athletics. Harold is survived by a son, Thomas Harold Stroh of Evans, and two daughters, Margaret Louise Stroh Collart of Palo Alto, Calif., and Carol Ann Stroh Heinze of Greeley. He was preceded in death by his parents, wife and four brothers: Henry, Alex, Dan and Arthur. A funeral service will be at 1 p.m. Tuesday at First United Methodist Church, 1005 Stover St. Interment will follow at Grandview Cemetery. The Rev. Charles Schuster will officiate at the service. Memorial contributions may be made to First United Methodist Church in care of Bohlander Funeral Chapel, 121 W Olive St., Fort Collins, CO 80624.