

Hector De Los Santos Avalos

November 8, 1949 - October 13, 2023

Hector D. Avalos was born in San Angelo, TX and raised in Mason, TX. He moved to Colorado after joining The Job Corps, where he then met and married his wife, Carol. They have three children: Hector, Trinity and Jessica.

He worked for Woodward Governor and then went on to PVH where he retired. Hector loved spending his free time with the younger generation of his family, teaching them his passion for fishing and the great outdoors.

He is survived by his eight brothers and sisters; his wife; three children; nine grandchildren; 11 great grandchildren; and numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews from here to Texas.
