“ It was a privilege and honor being Helen's caregiver for 2 1/2 years. We got along from day one. She was witty, sweet, very intelligent, and had such a zest for life. We had a lot of great conversations and I learned so much from her. She was an amazing lady!

“ I had the honor and great pleasure of taking care of Helen on occasion while working for Right at Home. We exchanged books and talked for hours about our mutual interest in books. Helen was extraordinary and very intelligent. She adored her husband and talked about their spirited conversations. I will always hold her close to my heart. Angie

“ Helen was a wonderful, thoughtful woman who greatly valued her independence. She was loved by many friends and often spoke of her loving family and how much she appreciated their involvement in her life. I will remember her fondly and reflect on many conversations we had. Cathy Martin
