Helen McGuire was born in Fort Collins, Colorado, January 9, 1908. She graduated from Fort Collins High School and lived in this area her entire life. She was raised on a farm located off of Lemay Avenue. “ Our much love and sympathy to all the family. Helan was a special person and I always appreciated her sincere and kindness and felt Loved as she would greet me with "My Joe". Wish we had been closer to enjoy these last years. Our last meeting was during Dads passing, but I still have fond memories of her and Uncle Bill. I did some minor work for them one summer on on the farm, while in college. Lord Bless your families and may he comfort you all.
