“ Grandma Irene was one of the strongest, kindest, and most loving women I knew. She was a person you could count on. I've brought Amy's Raggedy Ann and Andy dolls out to remind us of her. My family is very sorry she is gone, but we will think of her, and her family, for a very long time. Judy

“ I was sad to hear of Aunt Irene's passing. My heart though was filled with Joy that I was able to not only see her this past October, but to see her and my Mother together one last time. It is her voice that I will truly miss hearing. My heart goes out to all my cousins and their children. She will be missed. Beckie

“ I loved Aunt Irene. I remember visiting her in Texas. They had a pool and us girls lived in the pool that visit. I was really glad when you all moved back to Colorado. I have great memories of laughter and love out at the farm. I loved the way she laughed. She laughed with her heart. Roxie Hamlet Coate
