

Jacob Thomas Schwebach

August 18, 1993 - November 16, 2015

Jacob Thomas Schwebach, 22, of Fort Collins, died November 16, 2015.

Jacob was born August 18, 1993 in Laramie, Wyoming to Rob and Lynn Schwebach.

Jacob was a kind, gentle soul who deeply loved his family and friends—near and far. He loved all sports, especially CSU basketball and football. He loved music and his DJ job at KCSU, writing editorials on social justice issues, and creative writing. He enjoyed coffee and talks with friends, and all things chocolate. His memory will live on in all his photographs and paintings. Look to Horsetooth Mountain and see his smile forever within its natural beauty. Jacob loved beauty of all kinds, especially when found within others. He will never be forgotten.

Survivors include his parents, Rob and Lynn; grandmothers, Marie Schwebach and Lee Cutlik; brother, Elliott; and many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

A Memorial Service will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday at Foothills Unitarian Church, 1815 Yorktown.

Memorial contributions can be made to the Jacob Schwebach Memorial Fund in care of Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 W. Olive St., Ft. Collins, CO 80524.

“ Schwebach Family,
My name is Kelly and I'm from the Chicago area and met Jake about three years ago. To say Jake made a positive impact on my life would be an understatement. He is one of the first people who saw me for who I really was at a time when I had thought I completely lost myself. Although we unfortunately did not stay in touch. I have saved the note and drawings he gave me, and I cherish the copy of his favorite book he gave to me (which also became mine after I read it), "Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close" by Jonathan Safran Foer. I am so incredibly sorry for your loss, and I want you to know that because of him I will keep fighting. I promise. Sending prayers and love your way.

“ Jake was like my brother, young, cheerful, sometimes disobey, but he loves everyone. This tall big guy could spend hours with foreign students to make them happy and forget we were in a different country. What a good heart. But what comforts me is knowing he had escaped the pains and rests somewhere in heaven. His cheerful spirit is forever here with everyone.

*I will never forget you and the beautiful moments that we shared.
Rest in peace, Angel.*
