January 18, 1938 - January 22, 2018

Jacqueline (Jackie) Coralie Potter was born February 18, 1938, and left this world on January 22, 2018. She was surrounded by family during her death. Coralie was born in Denver to her parents, Lester C. and Ethel E. Potter. Coralie lived in Fort Collins most of her life. She worked as a waitress for many years at the Scout Café which was owned by her mother. During a short time in Idaho she became a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA). After returning to Fort Collins she cared for her parents through their remaining years.

Coralie was preceded in death by her parents and her sister, Carol Clerkin.

Coralie is survived by her brother Ronald Potter (Patricia) from Casper, WY. Also, by her daughters Lanny Moore (Cal), and Julie Davis-Brown, both from Fort Collins. She has one grandchild, Jackie Davison (Paul), and two great grandchildren, Drew and Hailey. She has one step-daughter, Reba Dunn from Julesburg, CO. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

The family would like to thank the staff of Rehabilitation and Nursing Center of the Rockies for all of their support and care that they gave "Jackie" over the past 4 years. We cannot count the many times we were told how special she was to you, as she was to us.
