“ Being a transplant in Colorado from California (Huntington Beach), Jim and I had many fun conversations about the coast! My most favorite memory was watching him jump in and make a chunky blanket with us. I bought him red, white, and blue yarn. He had several holes when he was finished. I convinced him to bring it back to the Lodge and we would fix it together. He was proud of his accomplishment. I am sad that I couldn't be there to say goodbye! Rest peacefully Jim! You lived a full, busy life!

Thank you for sharing your memory, Laryl. Henry loved that chunky blanket, holes and all :-). It's funny we never knew grandpa made it! I missed getting to meet you yesterday.

“ To Jim's Family--

Pat and I connected to Jim through his volunteering at St. Joseph's Church and School as well as the K of C and a Bible Study Jim and Mark attended. We enjoyed his company and positive attitude--and shared his love of our parish family. We will miss him around St. Joseph's Church and School.
