“ Jan, As we prepare to head to Minneapolis and the Mall of America, I can't help but bring back memories of our visits to Chicago and particularly the trips to the Old Chicago mall/indoor amusement park. You were always there with advice and assistance, and I regret that we never made the trip to see you while you were in Colorado. You will forever be in our memories, and we will continue to share those with our children. God Bless, Thad and Diana Howard

“ Jan what a brave soul. From the rapid pace of big city life to the peace and serenity of the wide open Colorado Rockies. From being single & independent to married to my Dad with 7 children. We didn't always understand you, you didn't always understand us but I know that you always had our best interest at heart. Thank You Jan for being such a positive influence on our lives. I know your last few years here were hard, hoping all is well for you now and you can see all of the Mountains at once. Bye for now Jan Love Marty & Sally
