

Janet L. Scott

September 25, 1932 - April 28, 2015

Janet Ruth Linscott was born on September 25, 1932 in Amesville, Ohio. She was a cherished only child and was very close to her parents, growing up in the company of adults.

Music was always a big part of Janet's life. Early on, she was an accomplished classical pianist. She played in competitions, played piano and organ for events and church services. She received her degree from Ohio University. Through her life, she was a dedicated piano teacher.

Jan met Virgil Scott at the local skating rink and were married on April 9, 1955 in Amesville, Ohio. They had four kids, Joy, Rusty, Sharon, and Karen living their lives in Ohio, Arizona and Colorado.

During that time, Jan was very active in church leadership, music, and Bluebirds. Jan was an unsung hero. She said "yes" to her kids, their friends. There are champions of the faith that were nurtured and fed cookies, pizza and root beer at her table. Worship leaders who played music in her living room afternoon hour after hour. She was generous, and often found at 1 am working at her sewing machine or ironing board in order to keep the family held together.

After Jan and Virgil "retired", they became prominent growers in Northern Colorado and were active members in the Farmers Market community. Jan spent long days working beside Virgil and became famous for; pumpkin rides for the local kindergartens, making strawflower arrangements and fall decorations for Farmers Markets in Fort Collins and Estes Park. Through their vegetable stand and attending markets, they made many good friends. Jan was also active for years in Bible Study Fellowship, church leadership and music.

“Mom’s House” was always the place to have the entire family for holiday parties, Sunday dinners, weekends home from College with friends, and grandkids. She also maintained a close relationship with her mother, Evelyn, who was always included in family events, gluing the generations together and providing memories of for the entire family.

Jan was an anchor at the “Timber Lane” home that was open to everyone for 35 years where they often held yard sales and were known around the city for their annual Mother’s Day plant sale and decorative garlic braids.

Jan was eternally committed to Virgil. Found in her bible this past week was part of a page from a Focus on the Family magazine. It read: Thank you, Lord, for this unique man—quiet, patient, dependable. Most of all, thank you for letting me see in him a small reflection of the sustaining, unconditional, protective love You have for both of us. (And this part was circled); Thank you, Lord, for helping me to appreciate him just the way he is.

As a result of their second retirement, they moved to be closer to family in Fort Collins in 2010. They continued their connections with church friends, the farming community...and the Colorado Rockies.

Jan’s inner strength was a true inspiration to us all. Although her body suffered a number of physical challenges over the years, her attitude and spirit never wavered. Her huge heart for her family and sense of humor continued through it all and will forever be a part of our memories.

Jan was loved by her devoted husband, Virgil; her four kids, Rusty and wife, Joanne, Karen, Sharon, and Joy and her husband, Ric. Her grandchildren include; Jason and Tessa, Abby and Nate, Erica, Emily and Joshua, Bekah and Zach, Jeremiah and Christie, Little Karen and Nick, Tucker, Jared, Cooper, Jenna and Kami. Her great-grandchildren are Ben, Brooke, Rachel, Tatum, Justice, Henley, Aspen and coming soon, baby Lux and baby Junker.

A Funeral Service will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, May 1, 2015 at Fort Collins Good Samaritan Retirement Village Chapel. Private Interment, Grandview Cemetery.

“ Dear Virgil and Family,
Jan was such a special person and we know how much you will miss her. The service was a beautiful tribute to a special lady. I lived next door to Jan and Virgil for several years and they were so kind and loving. Both so devoted to each other and so proud and spoke so loving of their grown children and grandchildren. They both enjoyed the day out working in the yard and Virgil hanging hundreds of gourds on the fence every year. Jan always had a warm smile on her face and a welcome word to start the day.

I know you will miss her but she has always been your guardian angel and know she will have a better advantage to watch over her loved ones.

Loved the poem..... When I think of Jan, it is a happy one! She leaves many happy memories and you will remember them all with time.

Love, Cheryl, Todd and Emma Sullivan

“ I was so lucky and blessed to have met the entire Scott family in my early teen years. God surely had His hand in the high school class scheduling when he put Joy and I together in freshman PE. I hope the Scott family knows how much they mean to me and how much I cherish the memories. Oh, Mrs. Scott, you are a blessing to so many... I know that you are missed. My prayers are with you Mr. Scott, Rusty, Sharon, Karen and my dear Joy.

“ What great examples were set for us as I as we watched how a Christian family should be, when we saw the Scott family close-up at Scottsdale Christian. Many fond memories learned from Mr. and Mrs. and the wonderful kids. Wishing you all the best and praying for God's perfect peace for you all. Love, Tim and Jan Kelley

“ Dear Virgil and Family, There isn't enough space to say all I want to say but after all the years we have known each other, our families growing up together and sharing all the good and yes, bad times, I think you know how special all of your family is to us. Jan and I taught VBS and Sunday School together and I have to say I used her teaching methods as I considered her a real role model. The yearly Christmas letters with pictures that you and Jan sent out every year, were eagerly expected and I have them all. Our love and prayers are with you and your family and you can be sure Jan will always be in our hearts. Jan's gentle manner and sweet smile are etched in our minds. She will never be forgotten.

“ Having Jan and Virgil across the street was a blessing. Jan always baked chocolate chip cookies when my grandsons were in town in the summer and we had many lazy summer afternoons sharing lemonade and stories. Love and prayers to the family, Lynne Warfield
