“ I have so many memories of Jean because she shared so much with me about her life, throughout 20 some years of styling her hair. She was a beautiful Christian, and openly shared God’s love and what it mean’t to her.

She shared about her many challenges in life and her devoted love of family.

One special memory was a time she invited me to spend an afternoon at her friend’s family cabin. Her daughter Debbie and Debbie’s husband ,Del, brought the grandchildren to practice their performing in the Christian Band. They called it the “ Luk-a-Sandwich” Band. I enjoyed their music so much and will always remember what it meant to Jean to have her grandchildren share their love of God through music.

Jean was my friend. My deepest condolences to all of the family.
