“ *Belate condolences for the loss of Jerry,
I Live in Italy and just heard the sad new.
Been sharing passion for collecting history with Jerry since 2005
,shared few Shows in Kentucky with him, bought and sold items betwwen us and always appreciated his sense of humor .
he will be missed overhere too , a lot !
always remember his " buenas dia , amigo!" when we met ..never succeeded in teaching him to spell "Buongiorno" correctly.. goodbye Jerry see you someday,rest in peace

“ I'm not sure the comments I made about my friendship with Jerry actually posted along with the photo of the tree so I will post here again and hope this is not a repeat. Jerry and I were good friends while we worked together at Anheuser Busch brewery. One year AB gave us each a Colorado Blue Spruce seedling for Arbor Day and asked us to plant it at home. Jerry gave his tree to me and asked me to plant it for him, which I did. Now it is tall and stately, healthy in our front yard, and surrounded by lilac bushes. I think of Jerry every time I see it. Jerry was a kind, honest, and gentle man and I'm very happy that we were friends. God Bless you, Jerry.
