“ It was always nice being around Jesus--he had such a pleasant smile and kind demeanor. We will never forget how sweet and loving he was. His joyful face could really put a person at ease and that smile of his was contagious. He was always mannerly and set such a wonderful example for us of how to treat people. We miss him, but look forward to the day when we will see him again in a happy, perfect state and get to know him as the young person he seemed to always be at heart. ”
