“ I miss you grandpa. 😞 I've been thinking a lot about you today. How strong and determined you were to provide for the family. Your great sense of humor. Only you got my jokes. And we'd laugh and laugh and no one knew why. Grandpa you did a beautiful job raising up our family. Although my heart aches, I know you are pain and worry free up in heaven. See you soon. But not to soon! 😊❤️

“ Diane,
I didn't know your father but feel I needed to thank him and your Mom for bringing you into the world. I don't remember ever seeing you 'frown'. I always saw you with a shy or mischievous smile on your face. Just wanted you to know you're in my thoughts during this difficult time.

“ Dear Aunt Nora, Gene, Barb & Diane: Although it was a stressful and sad week, we did have some great stories to share and to learn about our dads. Love the story about how Uncle had to sit on my dad so he wouldn't get on the railroad tracks and the one of them throwing the chickens in the air will be one to remember whenever we're feeling sad. After 63 years of togetherness it was great to teach Aunt that the frown you thought was just a frown is actually called the CASTELLANOS FROWN; and most of us have it. Learning about the nicknames; "Chuey" for Uncle Jess, "Josephine" for Aunt Helen, had to ask dad about his, he said his was always Johnnie.
Uncle Jesse I'm going to miss you and hoped you knew how much I loved you. You are resting in peace now and will always have a special place in my heart. Love to you all, Virginia (Castellanos) Trujillo
