“ I was so sad to hear of Bob's passing. I have so many fond memories of the Bryant family as we all were growing up on the "hill" and spent time with Bob's parents and then his family. It was so much fun getting to see you all again when we brought our Mom up to see our old house when it was up for sale several years ago. I trust that you will have many fond memories to draw from as you go through the next weeks, months ... they will bring you comfort and will help you to smile through the tears. My thoughts are with you!! Take good care!!

“ Dear Bob and family, We were so sad to hear of your loss. It is so difficult to lose a parent and we just wanted to extend our condolences. Although words seem futile now in the midst of your sorrow, they are all we have to give you. Please accept these heartfelt words as warm hugs to wrap yourself in, and know that we are holding you and your family in our hearts at this sad and difficult time. Loe, Rich and Connie

“ I am Bob's first cousin by way of our mothers were sisters. We share a lot of "growing up" memories because when we were kids we used to spend almost every Sunday we could together. Dad would say on Sunday morning, "It's off to the north hills today to visit the Bryants and off we would go in our 29 Chevrolet: dad, mom, bro. ed, myself, and little sis jo. We have photos of us riding the horses with Velma holding onto us tightly trying to hold the horse still for us. We would have the most wonderful food like homemade hominy and ice cream with chocolate syrup on it. They were the most friendly people you would ever meet. God bless all of us for the happy times we had together! Jean Large Condolences to Marie and Bobby, and Mike and families.
