“ Our sincere sympathy to your familly, Joe was a great friend for many years and we have alot of great memories. Joe will always hold a special place in our heart. We know he will be sadly missed by his family and friends but we know he's in a better place and free of pain. So we have to believe he will always be looking down at us and remembering all the fun times we had together and he's home now with his family in the land of above that will take care of all till we all meet again in the promise land. All our love and blessings to his family. Love Jodi and Everrette Case and family
