“ Big heart, open arms. That’s the first thing that comes to mind when I think of Josh... followed quickly by his and Courtnie’s laughs. I grew up with Josh, his sister, and all our friends at church. It seemed like half our lives passed hanging out in the youth room while our parents were at choir practice, at Wednesday night summer worship, in youth group, and grabbing food afterwards. To this day, if I eat at a Taco Bell or Wendy’s, those times always come to mind. We spent many summers together just growing up. Besides sharing pictures of our girls, one of my last texts to Josh was a picture of a Buffy the Vampire Slayer tattoo. If you know you know, but Sarah Michelle Gellar should have at least messaged him back!

I love you Josh. I cannot believe you are not here with us. The world is less warm. I look forward to seeing you again on the other side and know you will always be watching over your loved ones.

I am here. Jersey, Courtnie, Mrs Cromley, if there is anything I can ever do, please reach out.

“ So many memories flood my mind ... Josh was always the life of the party, the mood setter! Never a dull moment when Josh would walk in the room! His love for his Daughter J, his parents, his sister, his niece and nephew and his friends never was a question. So many ditch days to Estes, Dancing on tables at CSU, classes at FRCC, births of babies and being called Grandpa Josh by my Grandson Gio ...

Josh I love you ... I am grateful for all the love, friendship and memories you gave me ... I will treasure you and all of the memories until I can see you again .... It's not goodbye, it's Later my friend

God Speed Joshua Mark ☐🕊️

“ Josh and I were good friends for 10+ years. I considered him one of my best friends. We enjoyed going to his first TransSiberian Orchestra concert in November 2024 with his adorable daughter, Jersey, and friends. I will always remember the memories we shared. I love and miss my dear friend. 😭

He was so excited for that day. He showed me all of these pictures. Thank you so much for making that dream a reality for him.
