“ Bill and family: What an unexpected terrible loss to you, your family, and the world. If there were ever a 'spark plug' to keep us all going, it was Joyce...all the way back to junior high school. As I write this, memories keep flooding back thru all those years of things we did just for fun while we were supposed to be getting an education.

“ Bill, David and I were shocked to read about Joyce. We had such a nice visit at the Ayalas home and she gave no indication of having any problem. She always had a smile on her face. We are so very sorry and pray that God will bring you comfort and peace.

“ Every once in awhile, out of the blue, I'd receive a newsy email from Joyce. I could almost hear her laughter in her written words. It is easy to believe Joyce never met a stranger. My sympathy goes out to Bill, the rest of the family, and all of Joyce's friends who will miss her deeply.
