“ My grandmother was more than than a grandmother, she was a mother. She was a mother to her children, to her children's children and to her children's children's children. She loved without judgment and always offered coffee, conversation and compassion. Above all she offered endless love. My Grandmother was the most beautiful soul I have ever encountered but she was not alone. My grandfather sat next to her, they were a power couple. Together they taught us all so much. They brought beauty into our lives. I will forever miss my grandmother but my grandfather still takes his breaths on our plane of existence. I know that my grandmother's flame is not extinguished, my grandfather will still carry the torch for his "babe". My point is both of them taught me unconditional love. They will both continue to be with us, one in person and one in spirit. Their beauty will be burned into our memories. Above all their love for all of us and for eachother will always set them apart from many couples. I know we are celebrating my grandmother but at the same time I would like to recognize her husband who has lost more than anyone could understand. Thank you grandma for all of the conversations and love, thank you grandpa for your strength and remember we still need you.

“ While living in Omaha, I have such great memories of the monthly card club that we had with Bob & Joyce and the Stanek's and Bartek's. It was so delightful to be together every month for much fun and laughter!

“ Our lives are touched by many people. But only a few leave that special feeling in our hearts which lasts forever. Joyce was that person. She was kind, helpful,encouraging,patient and funny. Joyce has been a friend for over 52 years. She gave me a baby shower for our first child. She got up at 3am to come and stay with our son while we went to the hospital for another baby. She rode to work with me for years and put up with my nutty behavior when there was a miller moth in the car. She and Bob helped us move . Without them we would still be moving 50 years later. She came to parties and could always be found at the sink. She and Bob came to dinner at 6pm and didn't eat until after 11pm, without complaint. She always cared about how our family was doing. Joyce was accepting of everyone, regardless of their flaws. Her example lives on in her children. May God Bless and Comfort the Silhasek Family. Nik and Jo Ann Berrong

“ I was lucky to know Joyce as a child through adulthood. I was her sister-in-law, though closer in age to her own children. She welcomed me as one of her own when we came to visit. She was a Wonder Woman who could manage a back seat full of kids, cook up a holiday meal for a large extended family and perform similar feats of strength. Tiny but mighty. We will miss her presence and look for her strength in the beautiful kids she leaves behind. Love to you all.
