“ My mentor, my teacher, my motivator, my secret banker, my cheering section, my roller coaster operator, my friend ... my father. I feel the silence where your laughter used to be. My heart aches. I miss you, I honor you, I love you. Goodbye Daddy.

“ Our CU/CSU rivalry was always a great time. My father took me to the Rocky Mountain Showdown this past year at Folsom Field for my birthday where CSU took the title much to my father's excitement. It was one of the best birthday gifts ever. Always in my heart. I will miss your company, stories and support Dad. Love you always.
