“ Kinney coached our son in recreation basketball. I remember him being so patient with those "rowdy" boys. I know Chad really liked having Kinney as a coach. He was just a real nice man and we are sorry for your loss. Tim, Diana and Chad Christopherson

“ Kinney was one of the all-time really good guys. Fueled by his heart for people, he was generous and giving to a fault. From the hundreds of basketball games we played together, to the thousands of laughs we enjoyed, to his being the Best Man in my wedding, I'll always remember him as a great friend. He will be missed!

“ We are so saddened by this sudden event. Our hearts and prayers go out for you, Teri, and your family. We can not understand why things in life happen as they do, but we have to have faith that God has a plan and it's for a good reason, only He knows at this time. May you be comforted.
