October 13, 2005

Leslie Clair Charvat Sr., 77, was born Feb. 11, 1928. He left us to be with the Lord and eternal happiness on Oct. 11, 2005. Leslie was born in Fort Collins where he lived and worked in his father's grocery store. He attended Fort Collins High School and enlisted in the Navy in 1946. He was stationed in Guam and was an aerial photographer. Les returned to the family business and married the love of his life, Jean Fidino, on Aug. 23, 1950. His kind heart and caring attitude was shared with everyone that shopped at Charvat's Grocery until it was closed in 1977. He then went on to share more of his qualities in his ceramic tile business. He retired in 1990. In his short but wonderful time with us, Les enjoyed many hobbies which include fishing, tying flies, hunting, coaching, shooting sports, camping and was an excellent bowler. All of his hobbies and qualities were most enjoyed when he was sharing and teaching them with family and friends.
