

Liam David Garnica-Osman

December 25, 2023 - December 28, 2023

Liam David Garnica-Osman born Christmas evening December 25th, 2023. After devastating and surprising, medical complications, he tragically passed away in the loving arms of his parents on the evening of December 28th, 2023.

Although his life was short, the love and impact of this beautiful child will be remembered always.

He was a fighter until the end. Constantly beating the odds stacked against him. His tragic death was a surprise to every member on his care team and family.

Throughout his pregnancy he was able to join his family on trips to the Grand Canyon, 4th of July fireworks, pumpkin picking, and other family adventures. The family had been looking forward to the adventures he would participate in with them in person.

He is loved and is survived by his four siblings Emma, Leo, Ellora, and Daniel, his loving parents Patrick and Marissa, numerous grandparents, great grandparents, tías, tíos, and cousins.

Visitation will be held 4-6pm, Wednesday, January 31, 2024 at Bohlander

Funeral Chapel. Funeral Mass will be held 9:30 am, Thursday, February 1, 2024 at Saint Joseph Catholic Church. Interment will follow at Grandview Cemetery.

“Marissa, Patrick & family - We learned of sweet Liam's life and passing through St. Joseph parish. The Confraternity of Christian Mothers is continuously lifting you up in prayer and we have many mothers who are ready and able to lend aid if there is anything we can do to help during this time of sorrow and illness. Please contact us at NoCoCCM@gmail.com if there's anything we can do.

Having received your beautiful Liam on the Feast of Christ's birth, you have a special connection to the Divine Infant, beside Whom your own son now rests. With the families of the Holy Innocents, whose feast we commemorate on the same day as Liam returned home to heaven, may your suffering be turned to joy when you are reunited someday.

We are praying for you in many ways, but especially with the following words:

Prayer for the Mourners

Almighty and most merciful Father, You know the weakness of our nature; bow down Your ear in pity to Your servants, upon whom You have laid the heavy burden of sorrow. Take away out of their hearts the spirit of rebellion, and teach them to see Your good and gracious purpose working in all the trials, which You send upon them. Grant that they may not languish in fruitless and unavailing grief, nor sorrow as those who have no hope, but through their tears look meekly up to You, the God of all consolation.

Lord, while in our sorrow we lament the departure of Your servant out of this world, we beg You to help us keep in mind that we are most certain to follow him; give us the grace to make ready for that last hour by a devout and holy life; protect us from a sudden and unprovided death; teach us to watch and pray, so that when Your summons comes we may go forth to meet the divine bridegroom and enter with Him the halls of heaven; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

“ My most sincere condolences to you Patrick and Marissa. I'd like to share a this scripture with you, which has helped me deal with the loss of a loved one, especially when they passed away seemingly before their time.

*Good people pass away;
the godly often die before their time.
But no one seems to care or wonder why.
No one seems to understand that God is protecting them from the evil to come.
For those who follow godly paths will rest in peace when they die. (Isaiah 57:1-2)*
