

Lois Andrews Clark

November 21, 2013 - November 21, 2013

Lois Andrews Clark Lois passed away peacefully in Fort Collins, Colorado on November 19, 2013, one month shy of her 103rd birthday. She was born in San Francisco December 18, 1910 and lived in northern California until she was 96 when she moved to Colorado to be near her son and his wife, Jim and Jane Clark. She retired from teaching kindergarten and grade school in Anderson, California, was involved in her local church, and the garden club. She also volunteered at the Anderson Library and was known for her generosity in making sure all her students had warm clothing for the winter. She is survived by her son, Walter James Clark Jim who lives in Fort Collins. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Pathways Hospice in care of Bohlender Funeral Chapel, 121 W. Olive, Fort Collins, Colorado 80524.

“ Dear Jim and Family, We extend our sympathy to you at this time of your Mother's death., What a wonderful life she has had and how blessed we have been to have known her here in Redding. It was always a joy to have her sit with us at church Pilgrim Congretional Lois was one of the sweetest, kindest people I've ever known. HOw fortunate were the students she taught! Lois was ever the optimist... she appeared to adjust to the move to Ft. Collins well, knowing that it was best to be near family. We shall surely think of her on Dec. 19th. when she would have been 103!!! With Caring Thoughts,
