“ After the first day of 2nd grade, our oldest son, David, told me that he knew that Miss Thayer was a Christian by the way she acted.....David is now 45 with children of his own, but he still remembers this great lady.....as we all do.... This special lady is spending Christmas with the Babe in Heaven....as the angels rejoice at her arrival home.....The Sysum Family

“ Miss Thayer was my second grade teacher and also a friend of my family. What wonderful memories I have in her class. She taught with a lot of love and patience there were only 4 or 5 girls in my class of 20 or so! One of the memories is learning cursive writing and the many hours we spent learning to control the pencil. And to think many schools are taking cursive writing out of the classroom. In later years I learned what an outstanding independent Christian woman she was in life. Many memories.....
