“ Words are inadequate to describe the joy and privilege it was to be in the presence of Lorraine. It was a great honor to have been involved with her care over the past few years. She was a gem who deserves a comfortable throne in heaven. I still sing our songs when I take a shower and think of my friend singing with me... Showers will never be the same, but I know she is now singing with angels. With love and sympathy for all those who loved this amazing lady..especially, FLOYD! Angie Joseph, Pathway's Hospice

“ I am so blessed to have known Lorraine and am so thankful for many special memories with her over the years. She was such a special aunt to me and we had a bond that warmed my heart each time I saw her. I will miss her dearly but know she's in Jesus' arms. I love you Aunt Lorraine! Thank you for all of the laughs and memories...
