

LouAnn Aughinbaugh

August 6, 2008

LouAnn Aughinbaugh, born Sept. 30, 1915, passed away Wednesday, Aug. 6th. She was born in Madison, Kan., to Parker and Hannah Cox. She married Earl Aughinbaugh on Feb. 10, 1934, and moved to Fort Lupton. Earl and LouAnn bought Spencer Heights Resort in the Poudre Canyon, in 1958, moving to the Poudre full time in 1964. They resided in Poudre Canyon until 1999, when they moved to Fort Collins. When Earl passed away in 2001, LouAnn moved back up to the Poudre where she lived until a few months before her death. LouAnn and Earl had three children, Lee Janet Aughinbaugh, Murrieta, California; Shirly Buck Edwards, Chadron, Neb.; Susan Ron Brown, Poudre Canyon; eight grandchildren; and fifteen great-grandchildren. Memorial services will be at the Poudre Canyon Chapel in Sept. and LouAnn will be interred at the Chapel Columbarium.

“Mr. and Mrs. Aughinbaugh will always have a special place in our family's heart. We spent many summers renting a cabin at Spencer Heights. Mrs. Aughinbaugh was always so kind to us kids. I remember they had for sale small china animal figures. Us kids would just love looking at them and dreaming of buying one. One summer we had earned enough money that we were each able to buy one. I still have mine to this day. Another memory is us kids would buy their Jolly Ranchers from the glass jar that sat on the counter, we would take them on hikes to suck on. Mrs. Aughinbaugh was known for baking the best Blueberry pie you will ever taste. Our favorite spot was the screened in porch that sat by the river. My dad would spend time up at the store chatting with Mr. Aughinbaugh. about the missing plane up in the Big South. It broke my heart to see my childhood second home was torn down. Thank you Mr and Mrs. Aughinbaugh for all you did to make our vacations very special and God grant their family many special memories as well.
