

Margaret Glennell Danielson

September 11, 1927 - July 1, 2015

Margaret Glennell “Glenn” Danielson passed away on July 1, 2015. A memorial service celebrating her life will be held on Sunday, July 26, 2015 at 1:00 p.m. at Trinity Lutheran Church, 301 E. Stuart Street followed by a luncheon at the church.

Glenn was born in Loveland, Colorado on September 11, 1927 to Charles Webb and Mary Campbell Brodie Webb. She graduated from Colorado State University where she met Bob Danielson, her beloved husband of 46 years. Glenn and Bob, a professor at Colorado State University, lived happily together in Fort Collins during their entire married life until Bob passed away in 1995. Thereafter, Glenn continued to live in their home in Fort Collins, spending winter months in Phoenix. She cherished her family and many friends, her church, her Tri Delta sorority and PEO organizations, her bridge clubs, and her volunteer work at Poudre Valley Memorial Hospital.

Glenn was loved deeply by her two daughters, Becky Ericson of Boulder who predeceased her, and Wendy Woodrow of Phoenix and by her son in law, John Woodrow of Phoenix; her grandchildren, Jeffrey and Anna Ericson of Highlands Ranch, Molly Ericson Thelosen and Lucas Thelosen of Lafayette, and Claire and Emily Woodrow of Phoenix; as well as by her three great grandchildren, Hannah and Layla Thelosen and Audrey Ericson. She was also blessed with the loving care and friendship of Patti Jo and Ken Barbarick of Fort Collins. Glenn's sister, Fran Collinsworth lives in Phoenix. Her brother, Jack Webb of Wisconsin, preceded her in death.

Smart, strong, funny, positive, loving, and always a lady in the truest sense of the word, Glenn was able to live by herself until she died with the kind assistance of her caregivers, friends, family, and church.

Contributions in Glennell Danielson's memory may be made to St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital or to Trinity Lutheran Church care of Bohlander Funeral Chapel 121 W. Olive Street Fort Collins, Colorado 80524.
