“ Marie was a friend of my family for as long as I can remember, having known her sons even before we started school. We shared many years of memories, I was blessed with a friendship that would last throughout my life. Marie was a wonderful person, who loved to dance, and to laugh, was a great cook, and loved her friends, and her family. She always made a beautiful home and truly enjoyed her collection of "pretties". Marie was full of life and spread that joy to all who came in contact with her. I will miss her deeply.
