“It is with deep sorrow to hear about the passing of Mark Kintzley, a man of unwavering strength, character, and faith. Mark was more than a hero in the military; he was a hero to his family, friends, and all who were fortunate enough to know him. His service to our country, including his time in Vietnam, cannot go unnoticed, and we are forever grateful for the sacrifices he made.

Throughout his life, Mark exemplified the values of devotion to family, integrity, and a steadfast belief in Christ. Even as his health began to decline, his spirit only grew stronger. His unwavering faith and courage in the face of adversity were a testament to the man he was—a man of deep conviction and unwavering trust in God's plan.

Reflecting on Mark's passing, I am reminded of the comforting words from Isaiah 57:1-2:

"Good people pass away; the godly often die before their time. But no one seems to care or wonder why. No one seems to understand that God is protecting them from the evil to come. For those who follow godly paths will rest in peace when they die."

I have no doubt that when Mark was welcomed into God's embrace, he heard the words, "Well done, my good and faithful servant." Though we will miss him dearly, we can find solace in the knowledge that Mark is now resting in eternal peace, free from the burdens of this world.

Let us all be at peace, knowing that Mark's legacy will live on in our hearts and that he is now experiencing the fullness of God's love and grace forever.

Peace be with you...

I'm Antonio from Italy. I corresponded for many years with Mark. A wonderful man, full of enthusiasm and passion. I knew about him talking about martial arts especially about Bruce and Jimmy Lee in Oakland. He articulated concepts in a simple manner helping myself to understand. Grazie Mark for your help.
