“ Mark. I first knew you as my kid brother's friend. Over the years you became a true friend to me. I will miss our lunches and conversations in my living room. Miss you.

“ A lot of shared experiences, and memories that have not dimmed with the passage of years. We grew up together but dropped out of touch. I was lucky enough, though, to renew our friendship over the last few years and found you to be honest, true and loyal as always. Most of all you were there during a very tough time for my family in Colorado and for this I will be forever grateful. Mark, you will be greatly missed.

“ I saw Mark on and off over the years in town and at the dances. There could be no truer thing to say, than that he was a gentlemanand he was kind. He love to dance, He had a sparkle in his eye and seemed to really enjoy life. He listened in conversations...really listened and was supportive. He always seemed like an exceptionally fine human being.

I am sorry his life got cut short.

And I am sorry for your loss.
