“ Dear Johnny and family, It was only this morning that I read about Mary Ann's passing. We had been in India, then Denver and only came up to Fort Collins recently. We are so saddened by this, as we had wanted to see her and catch up on news. I'm grateful to have spent time with you both in 2011 when you came by the Maple house and we sat in the back yard and watched the birds. We will miss her fun sense of humor and twinkly eyes but know she will be dearly remembered. Hope to touch base with you Johnny in a few days.

“ The love and compassion Mrs West had for her family and so many others was far reaching. It lives on in her children and her husband, Johnny. She was a great example of unconditional love. I will always remember meeting her for the first time. As we all sat on their back porch, I could read in the fence, "Johnny loves Mary Ann". It had been power washed into the fence by her husband. I still think of this and all the love it conveyed. There is a gift for us in each relationship that comes our way. Thank you for your gift, Mrs West. You will be missed. Michele
