“ I didn't get to interact with Mason that much this school year because we didn't have any classes together but we sat together in band class all through 8th grade. He always had a funny and/or clever remark ready no matter the situation. We had lots of fun in jazz band and shared plenty of smiles. He was a awesome friend and a pretty darn good trumpet player as well. I will miss him dearly.

“ My most vivid memory of Mason is when he was a year and a half and we were hanging out in the back yard of the apartments. He went into the field on the other side of the barbed wire fence and Nell told him to stop and come back. Mason looked at her, smiled, and took off running. I still have the picture of his smile in my head. Another time in the apartment Janel was giving me a back rub and Mason put his feet on Janel's arms and pushed them off of me. He was a real mama's boy and she was all his!

“ Dear Pascoe Family,

I'm here to share a memory of Mason. I met Mason this year and we met in English class. The seating chart was arranged to where he sat right behind me. We hit it off quickly. Anyways, the very first day of English class I had a Jolly Rancher and I gave him one. the next day I didn't have one for him and everyday since he would constantly reminded me that I owed him candy. EVERYDAY. And every time I was getting food out of my backpack he'd go " Where is my candy, Cheyanne?!" Lets just say I never knew a day where he wasn't asking for candy. One day I had these honey coated cheerios and I gave him a lot and we were like crunching on them really loud and anytime some one would look up we'd stop chewing and pretend it wasn't us ahaha. It was also funny because we both looked at the floor and there was cheerios covering the floor and we were trying to sweep them under other peoples desk XD. Another memory I have of Mason was when the teacher put up all the vocabulary words on the board and we had know Idea what they meant. But one of the words was "douse" And he tapped on my shoulder and was like "You are a Douse." And anytime i'd talk he kept telling me to stop being such a douse. Other than him constantly teasing me, he always made me smile even when I didn't want to. He would just be himself and I would smile. Mrs. Conrad (our English teacher) kept telling us we needed new seats because him and I wouldn't stop talking to each other. Not to mention, your son was super intelligent. He always knew what words meant, he always finished books first, and also helped everyone. Im sorry this is so long, I have so many more memories with him, but these are the ones that made me really remember him. I loved Mason and miss him so much. As do you. I encourage you not to be angry with God for there is enemy is this world. but you don't need to worry, Mason is in Gods arms and shreddin' in heaven on his skateboard. He was crazy talented and Jesus loves him. My prayers go out to you and your family. I talk to Mason everyday through my prayers. You raised an amazing young boy.

Love, Cheyanne Dube (AKA Cheyanne Douse)

p.s SORRY this is so long.

“ *I met Mason only once when he was 2 and I was briefly visiting Fort Collins, but even then I could see that he was ready to go climb trees just like his daddy, and from what I know of him, he never stopped living life to its fullest in his short 15 years. I'm sorry I can't be there physically but I'm sending love to you all across the miles.

“ I will always remember a boy with an amazing smile and an energy and light that would draw in anyone around. Mason knew more about how to enjoy life at a young age than most adults will ever know. He devoured every minute and lived life the way it was meant to live. To his family and friends, I am deeply sorry for your loss. The world has lost an amazing person. Please live your lives to the fullest and honor Mason by never wasting a second of this precious time we have. Live, laugh, smile, love, and be there for each other.

Much love,
